Electricity Price

Except for price changes allowed by law or regulatory action, this price is the price that will be applied during your first billing cycle; this price may change in subsequent months at the sole discretion of Brilliant. This Average Price per kWh disclosure assumes a 30% load factor and is provided as an example estimate only. The Average Prices above are based on an energy price of 12.5¢, a Base Charge of $0.00, and the transmission and distribution utility's tariffed charges for the delivery of electricity, which are passed through at cost to Customer. This disclosure does not include other non-recurring or other excluded Pass-Through charges as described further in the Terms of Service, including, but not limited to, state and local sales taxes or reimbursement for the miscellaneous gross receipts tax.
